A Little About Myself. . . .

Walter C. Jeffers was born in Philadelphia, PA and Educated in the Philadelphia Public School System and attended the Philadelphia Job Corps Center.

Walter has worked for various Government Contractors in the operations of Job Corps Centers, he has worked under and has held various positions during his tenure. Walter has worn a number of hats throughout Job Corps because of his multi-departmental experience and served as the Chairperson for the Impact Innovations Program.

Walter enjoys working with youth and volunteering where he can be of service. Walter’s willingness to serve has given him the opportunity to be recognized as a “Hometown Hero” from the Philadelphia Eagles, PECO Energy and the Philadelphia 76ers in the same year. Walter has been motivated by his struggles growing up and turning them into something positive.

Walter represented the First District Lay Organization and was awarded the inaugural Ted E. Harris Outstanding Young Adult Award for Service to the Lay Organization by the Connectional Lay Organization 32nd Biennial Session in Detroit, MI in August 2011.

Walter currently serves as an Advisor to the Connectional Young Adult Representative and the Editor-In-Chief for the First District Flame Newspaper. He has served as Co-Director of Public Relations for the First District Lay Organization and the Co-Chair of Public Relations for the 32nd Lay Biennial. Walter is always willing to work where necessary. Walter also serves on various church, community boards & organizations locally and statewide.

Walter’s favorite passage of scripture is from John 15:8-13; “Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples. As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father’s commandments, and abide in his love. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full. This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.”
